Perfecting Presenting: Enhancing Presentation & Facilitation Skills

Perfecting Presenting can benefit CEOs, senior executives and managers, sales and marketing professionals, spokespersons, and anyone who wants to improve their presentation skills. Key skills and techniques are developed in an informal risk-free environment. Participants may be videotaped for practice review. After the initial training, PC Associates will be available, on a fee basis, to attend a speaking engagement to assess participant's progress and provide feedback.

Participants will be able to:

- Heighten professional image and confidence
- Prepare and structure content
- Connect with your audience
- Make your personality work for you
- Fine tune your delivery style
- Control nervous energy
- Get and keep your audience's attention
- Use vocal skills properly
- Add energy with body language
- Use multimedia effectively
- Encourage audience participation
- Experience presentation feedback
